Hero Quest Week Four

Queen Esther Saves Her People

Esther was a Jewish girl who had no parents. She lived with her uncle, Mordecai. The King was searching for a queen and chose Esther because she was kind and beautiful. The king's advisor, Haman, was not a kind man and wanted the King to kill the Jews. This made Queen

Esther sad. She wanted to ask the King to save her people, but she was afraid. Queen Esther found the courage to go to the King. He asked her what she wanted him to do. To her surprise, when she asked him to save her people, the King agreed. Esther was courageous.
