Hero Quest Continues!

Last week, Sunday January 6, marked the beginning of Hero Quest. We had various different superheroes ranging from Batman, to Merida. While the superheroes were going through the city, they stop at the News Stand. Robert Paddock was running the news stand at this time. At the station the superheroes were required to decode a secret message with special glasses. We got a close-up of Superpastor Dude with the glasses on. The first day of Hero Quest started off with a bang!
